Description:

Review "My students LOVE this text and it is one fo the few that they don't sell back at the end of the term. I have worked with teachers who still have this book on their shelf five years after graduating from the program. Typically, the books end up with lots of sticky notes in them and looking worn because they are so used and loved." ~ Kathryn M. Ciechanowski, Oregon State University

From the Back Cover

50 Strategies for Teaching English Language Learners, Fourth Edition, by Adrienne Herrell and Michael Jordan, includes a rich assortment of practical strategies aligned to TESOL standards which have been field-tested in diverse classrooms. Each strategy includes a brief explanation, step-by-step instructions on how to plan and use the strategy, and two classroom scenarios demonstrating how the strategy can be adapted for different grade levels and content areas. Herrell and Jordan have included additional language and literacy development strategies, technology strategies, and assessment strategies to support both pre-service and in-service teachers.

The fourth edition includes the following exciting new features:

New Strategies - including additional language and literacy development strategies and combined strategies to demonstrate how teachers can effectively sequence approaches to support learning.

Expanded emphasis on the use of technology - with technology strategies infused into many of the chapters, and additional stand-alone technology strategies added to emphasize the appropriate use of technology to support and scaffold learning for English learners.

A focus on the use of assessment to ensure effective instruction - assessment strategies are included both in the theoretical overview section and in many of the individual strategy chapters to support pre-service and in-service teachers

Connection to the Classroom: The Strategies on Video DVD features four exemplary teachers demonstrating strategies from the book.
