Description:

Review "Fearless storytelling." - Marilyn Manson

"Jonathan Shaw is the great nightmare anti-hero of the new age." - Iggy Pop

"Shaw's writing is one hell of a wild ride through the bizarre netherworld of his own damaged consciousness. His experiences are real and his language and insights kinetic and brutal... Shaw's writing certifies him as a subversive and criminal inhabitant of the world of human expression." -

Jim Jarmusch

"Haunting poetry." - Hubert Selby Jr.

"A darkly hilarious litany of doomed love, drug addiction, compulsive sex and mutual enslavement..."
- VICE MAGAZINE

About the Author Jonathan Shaw is a world traveling outlaw artist, novelist, blogger, head doctor, anti-folk hero, whorehouse philosopher, legendary tattoo master and notorious innovator and creator of underground art. The bastard product of a brief, surreal, violent and unhappy alcoholic marriage between big band legend Artie Shaw and movie star Doris Dowling, the Vietnam War and massive preteen LSD consumption. After running with the likes of Jim Morrison, the Manson Family and Charles Bukowski, he fell prey to heroin addiction and a life of crime. He finally left 1970's Hollywood to travel the world by thumb and tramp freighter and is still out there somewhere.
